GRAND FINAL PROGRAM

Saturday 16th September, 2006

The boys have their eyes on you!

That's why NBN is a leader in keeping you up to date with all the rugby action.
News, sport and weather every night at 6.

James Estate Wines continues a tradition started some 30 years ago, when vineyard and winery practices were commenced on the Estate property, situated in the Upper Hunter Valley (a renowned quality vineyard area).

Wines produced from the estates own fruit have won industry awards each year since 1987, the first year of commercial production.

James Estate Wines, through the development of the estates vineyard capacity and full utilisation of its winemaking and storage facilities, produces premium quality wine for the domestic and export markets, in particular to Japan, UK and USA.

BETWEEN THE POSTS

with Rugby Balls

All six Minor Premiers have been rewarded for their consistent season long performances, and all six have the opportunity today to reap the ultimate reward for their effort in their respective Grand Finals.

While they may not necessarily have been the first qualifier for the decider, it is a credit to the effort and commitment of the players that they've made it.

In Premier 1 Grade, The Waratahs have peaked at the right time, and on the slow track that is expected will be hard to handle.

University's effort to thwart Wanderers, especially through ball control and mastery of the conditions sets the scene for a thriller.

The two are on a par out wide, but that will be of little consequence in a game plan that both coaches will be concentrating on the front eight.

The Premier 2 contest between Merewether Carlton and Wanderers will set the scene for the top grade game, with The Greens still smarting from their Major Semi Final defeat, while the Premier Colts game, also between The Greens and the Two Blues will display the two outstanding Colts sides of 2006.

University have come from the clouds to stake a claim in First Division A grade, but will have their hands full of the side most deserving of the trophy, Merewether Carlton.

The Greens have been the outstanding First Division club in 2006, and well deserve positive results in both grades today.

Win, lose or draw, Merewether watering holes will do well over the next week, with sides from their neck of the woods featuring in 250 minutes of rugby from the start of First Division B Grade at 10.00am.

The only club not to boast a Premier grade base, and the club that can't recall their last Grand Final appearance get the ball rolling against Maitland at 8.45am.

Griffins don't stack up all that well against a Maitland side full of reputations, but that will matter little as the underdogs throw caution to the wind tackling new and uncharted territory.

A Griffins win would not only be good for the club's 2007 plans, it'd be good for Newcastle & Hunter Rugby as well!

RUGBY ROUNDUP

Results from other zones, Inverell defeated Moree 20 points to 10 in the Central North Grand Final, Dubbo Roos defeated Forbes 27 points to nil in the Central West Grand Final, Grafton accounted for Casino 27 points to 14 in the Far North Coast competition decider, while closer to home, Coffs Harbour defeated Dorrigo 23 points to 12 in the Mid North Coast Grand Final.

In the New England competition Grand Final, St Alberts College accounted for Robb College 19 points to 12, with former Newcastle & Hunter combatants, Scone, finishing the season in fourth place.

Illawarra play their Final this weekend, with Grand Finals being played in Western Plains and Central Coast.

You don't need to be Sherlock Holmes to work this one out!

Today is Mark Eades 9th Premier Grade Grand Final, and also his 199th Premier 1 game.

The question beggars belief!

Will he be back in 2007?

All grades today feature the Minor

Premiers, a fitting tribute to their consistency throughout the season.

In the event of heavy rain having fallen on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, there's a chance you could be reading this program from the stand at Harker Oval, hallowed turf of Western Suburbs rugby league club, instead of the more traditional Passmore Oval.

Plenty of Internationals have played there, albeit in the other rugby code, and the ground has seen plenty of rugby league, but rugby games have been few and far between on the ground named in honour of famed medico, Dr. Alfred Harker.

The Second Division Grand Final looks to be a real contest, with Griffins the only side to defeat Maitland all year, and The Blacks runaway Minor Premiers.

Griffins would need to go back to their Second Division days as Tech College to recall a grand Final appearance, while Maitland are traditionally strong competitors in this division.

Muswellbrook bowed out of the First Division A grade race last Saturday,

The Whistle Blower!

For a lucky few, this Saturday sees the dawn the big day .. The Grand Final! Nerves, anticipation and excitement are sure to abound. Saturday marks the end of a long season for players & coaches alike, with all desiring one final victory for 2006. For the spectators, with many possibly lamenting the bounce of a ball somewhere in the season, & having fallen short of playing on Grand Final Day there is always next season or the chance to cheer on a mate!

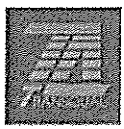

For the whistleblower, the much loved one in the middle, Grand Final Day means the same as any player. The culmination of a seasons hard work, a chance to facilitate a game, enforcing the Laws of the game, and above all enjoying the game of Rugby. Like the players, we mere mortal referees have our dedicated coaches to thank for their insightful coaching throughout the year. For like team, there is no "I" in referee. (note the correct grammatical representation coach!)

The laws provide players of different physiques, skills, genders and ages with the opportunity to participate at their levels of ability in a controlled, competitive and enjoyable environment. The responsibility to uphold the spirit of the game and the laws lies not with one individual, but with all - players, coaches, referees, officials & spectators. Rugby, has but one simple objective. It is a game to be played by two teams of fifteen players each, observing fair play according to the Laws and sporting spirit, whose objective should be to score as many points as possible by carrying, passing, kicking and grounding the ball. Thus the team scoring the greater number of points being the winner of the match.

So to the players, coaches, club officials and spectators, thank you for your continuing support of Rugby, best wishes for Grand Final Day and enjoy the games.

Opposing centres Paul Smith, University, and Chris Mikulski from The Waratahs are expected to play big hands in today's Premier 1 Grand Final.

courtesy of a much improved University, but The Students will need more than their share of luck today, up against a Green Machine that has dominated this grade all season.

Hunter Junior Grand Finals were decided last weekend, on a very wet and blustery No.2 Sportsground.

The results were:-

A real battle looms in First Division B grade, where Merewether Carlton and Wanderers are opposed.

The Two Blues were competition leaders for most of the first round, but fell on hard times due to injury and unavailability, allowing The Greens to overtake them and claim the Minor Premiership.

Add the traditional rivalry to the equation, and the match looks to be a cracker.

Though not enjoying a great deal of success on grand Final Day, Maitland were 2006 Club Champions, and for the first time in a few years, The Waratahs contested the Under 18 Grand Final, which augers well for their Colts team in 2007.

Singleton will host an Australian Barbarians vs Presidents XV game on October 21st, as part of celebrations on the opening of their new club rooms.

The Baa Baa side will include current Wallabies and Super 14 players, while Steve Merrick, Tim Rapp, Alistair Campbell and Josh Valentine, who have all played at Country level or better, have put their hands up to play for Michael Kelly's best Singleton fifteen.

If the Newcastle & Hunter Rugby Union Grand Final isn't enough of a rugby fix, ABC Radio will have a live broadcast of the APC game between the NSW Waratahs and the Queensland Reds on Sunday afternoon from 3.00pm.

The match will be played at Gosford's Bluetongue Central Coast Stadium.
