Mother Nature's best for Premier 2's, Colts and Premier 3's

Mother Nature turned on her best for last Sunday's final when five clubs did the rounds for a place in today's deciders. Slow to start, fifteen minutes from kick off in Premier 1's saw spectators flock in to No.2 boosting the crowd to its most significant in recent years for the Final. University and Maitland opened proceedings in Premier 3's, with The Blacks old bones letting them down after a courageous run from fifth place to qualify. The Students were victors 15 point to 7. Two played three in Colts with The Greens leading the game for its entirety to win 22 points to 15. Carlton led by seven on two separate occasions but it wasn't until late in the game that they were able to put the enthusiastic Hawks to sleep. In Premier 2's, Maitland, who have enjoyed a couple of outstanding seasons at the top of the Premier 2 tree were no match for a Wanderers side chock a block full of Premier 1 talent, Wanderers the victors by a healthy 40 points to 15. Read the full washup on last Saturdays Premier action in the BarTV review in this issue.

Morgan on song!

Today to perform the national anthem, we've got one of the hottest young stars in Australian music.

He's no stranger to big crowds, he's toured with artists like Taylor Swift and on his first trip to the US, and played in front of 60,000 people at one of their footy stadiums.

This guy released his Nashville recorded debut album back in March and he's already had two No.1 hits from it.

He's got a shelf full of CMC Music Awards, including the 2014 CMC Oz Artist of the Year trophy. He's a local hero around here – Newcastle born and bred, and he's even written and performed the team song for the local team from that other footy code.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome Morgan Evans to the Grand Final, where he will perform the National Anthem.

Grand Final fever grips suburban game

Last Saturday's lower grade Grand Finals offered the Union an opportunity to showcase its growing clubs and to fine tune arrangements for today's Premier deciders.

Great weather and a well stocked bar and canteen greeted the six teams taking part, Union staff working flat out all afternoon to keep the masses fed and watered.

The games gave players from as far afield as Muswellbrook and Singleton an opportunity to play on grounds like they had never experienced before.

Arch rivals Wanderers and Merewether Carlton opened proceedings for the Hunter Cup, with the Two Blues scoring the games only try to set up a narrow 13 points to 3 win.

Players Player for The Greens was Dean Wilson while Wanderers Luke Gibson picked up the gong for the winners.

Patrons Shield action saw Minor Premiers Singleton crush Cooks Hill, the Brown Snakes always behind the eight ball following their sapping upset win over Muswellbrook in the Final last Saturday.

Singleton were strong right from the first whistle, and while Cooks Hill played well, they were outdone by a far stronger side.

Try scorers for Singleton were Steve Lawrence with two, Alex Dunn with one try, four conversions), Matt Staff, Daniel Robbins, Ben Walters, and Richard Taylor.

Cooks Hill's Ben Prior, Jack McPherson and Chris Reed all bagged a try each, with Alexander Jenkins kicking a lone conversion.

Alex Dunn received Player of the Match for Singleton, while the Cooks Hill Player of the Match was Angus Shorter. Final score, Singleton 43 points to 17.

Best on field for The Bulls was Alex Dunn while Cooks Hill's Angus Shorter was the inspiration for the weary serpents.

Match of the Day honours went to the two heavyweight sides, Muswellbrook and Singleton, where The Healers, who had narrowly won the Minor Premiership had no answer to the pumped up Bulls who led from start to finish and won the game 26 points to 12 in a canter.

Try scorers for The Bulls were Junior Harris, Lincoln Adler, and Sam Walker, with Daniel Bates kicking one conversion and 3 penalties. Caleb Scholes and Esava Ravouvou nabbed a try apiece try for Muswellbrook and Alan Johnson scored one conversion.

Daniel Bates kept The Bulls in front with his eleven points off the boot, while Guy Shepherd was their Man of the Match.

Bruce Rauge was adjudged best on ground for Muswellbrook.

The Presidents Cup and Patrons Shield results auger well for The Bulls anticipated return to Premier rugby in 2015.

Spectators and players alike left the ground in awe of the new facility, the decision of the Union to showcase all of its elite games at No.2 a coup.

Leave the mutt at home!

Patrons at today's Grand Final are reminded that no drinks are permitted into the ground and that bags may be searched.

For those patrons who can't live without the family pooch for the afternoon, you are required to keep it leashed and on the hill away from the grandstand area.

Commiserations to Menchin family

Commiserations to Wanderer Luke Menchin and his family on the loss of their family patriarch during the week. Luke will undoubtedly use the old fellas loss as inspiration for a good performance today.

Cooks Hill Hotel revives footrace

Entertainment at halftime in today's Premier 1 game will feature The Running Race, a dash for cash sponsored by the Cooks Hill Hotel.

It allows for all clubs, regardless of division to be represented and challenge for the title, Fastest Man in the Union.

Each club has nominated two runners for the prestige event, with the club's representative decided on game day. Purse for the event comes courtesy of Cooks Hill Hotel and consists of $300 cash to the winner together with $300 pub money, $200 cash together with $200 pub money to the runner up and $50 and $50 to the third place getter.

NBN will be screening live on Saturday and will be replaying the Newcastle and Hunter Rugby Union - Sunday 21 September 1500-1700.

Paul Nickson and Dan Beckett will be Co commentators

Premier Finals Review

Sunday 14th September

The NHRU Premier Finals kicked off on a beautiful sunny Sunday with Premier 3, a tight contest between the University of Newcastle and Maitland. Both teams slogged it out in the forward packs, and were fairly evenly matched, but it was in the back line where the game was won, with Uni's Nathan Jones and Nick Carter showing flair and initiative to guide the Students in attack and defence. Uni took the points to advance to next week's Grand Final against Wanderers. Point scorers for Uni were Nathan Jones and Jack Wilson with Nick Carter bagging a penalty and a conversion, while Angus Taylor scored for Maitland with Mitch Helps converting.

In Colts, Merewether Carlton took on the Hamilton Hawks. Both teams showed determination and commitment, neither side giving up until the final whistle. Merewether had a great kicking game, which gained them a lot of field position as well as getting them out of trouble in defence. Chicky Sykiotis and Caleb Munro both scored a brace for Merewether in the 22-15 win, with Matt Hern taking one conversion. Billy Clay and James Fray both scored for Hamilton, Clay also kicking a conversion and penalty goal.

The Premier 2 final saw Wanderers up against Maitland. Both teams had periods of strong play, and great defence, however Wanderers ran away with it in the end, the final score finishing up 40 points to Maitland's 15. Scorers for Wanderers were Marcus Christiansen, Rob Rongokea, Anthony Barrett, Tanner Felix, Mick Hegarty, Rob Harlow and Nathan Sherwood with 5 conversions. Maitland's Rhys Watson and Jordy Lantry got one try apiece and Alex Tupou took home a conversion and penalty goal.

In the last, and perhaps biggest clash of the day, Wanderers took on Merewether Carlton in the Premier 1 final. The first half was a fierce contest between the old rivals, with Merewether going into the halftime break up 15 points to 10. In the end though, it came down to fitness, with Wanderers playing expansive rugby and forcing errors, to take home the win 37-15. The Greens put up a valiant effort throughout the game and are to be commended on a great season. Wanderers now face Southern Beaches next week, in the culmination of the 2014 season. Try Scorers for Wanderers were Andrew Tuala, Andrew Fletcher, Ben Ham and Luke Simmons with James Wivell kicking 17 points in a great personal haul. Corey Nash and Riley Smith both took home tries for Merewether, and Blake Creighton scored a conversion and penalty goal.

Final Scores:

Premier 3 – University 15 vs Maitland 7

Premier Colts – Hamilton 15 vs Merewether Carlton 22

Premier P2 – Wanderers 40 vs Maitland 15

Premier P1 – Wanderers 37 vs Merewether Carlton 15

WANDERERS RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB

2015 Advanced Development Program / Wider Training Squad

The WRFC, in partnership with the Samaritans Foundation provides pathways for local junior and senior rugby union players and staff to progress and further their careers in their chosen fields. The ADP / WTS looks to extend its player and support base in our 3 tier development program for the 2015 season. To accommodate for this, our staff at Wanderers Rugby continue to expand in all fields of coaching, strength and conditioning, management and medical to ensure we provide an overall high performance. Our ADP / WTS programs aim to produce not only better athletes, but better people in both the rugby and wider communities.

The WRFC invites applications for positions (from U16 to all ages) in our high performance squad programs for 2015.

All interested parties are encouraged to apply through the online process providing they can meet the minimum standards as outlined in the terms and conditions on the WRFC website:

Grand Finals Review

President's Cup, Patron's Shield & Hunter Cup Grand Finals Saturday 13th September

The first grand final for the day saw Wanderers take on Merewether in the 2014 Hunter Cup. It was a hard-fought match, with Wanderers' Tom Hansen scoring the only try of the game. Two Blues' Luke Miller kicked their other 8 points to secure the win. Merewether's Isaac Skillen took the Green's only 3 points. The final score was Wanderers 13 to Merewether 3. Player of the Match for Wanderers was Luke Gibson and Merewether's was Dean Wilson.

In the Patron's Shield, Singleton Bulls defeated Cooks Hill Brown Snakes 43 points to 17. Singleton were strong right from the whistle, and while Cooks Hill played well, they were outdone in the end by the Bulls. Try scorers for Singleton were Steve Lawrence (2), Alex Dunn (1 try, 4 conversions), Matt Staff, Daniel Robbins, Ben Walters, and Richard Taylor. Cooks Hill's Ben Prior, Jack McPherson and Chris Reed all bagged one try each, with Alexander Jenkins kicking a lone conversion. Alex Dunn received Player of the Match for Singleton, while the Cooks Hill Player of the Match was Angus Shorter.

The President's Cup was a fierce match up between Singleton Bulls and Muswellbrook Healers. The pair had been evenly matched throughout the season, however on this occasion, Singleton came out on top, defeating a strong Muswellbrook side 26 points to 12. Scorers for the Bulls were Junior Harris, Lincoln Adler, and Sam Walker, with Daniel Bates kicking one conversion and 3 penalties. Caleb Scholes and Esava Ravouvou both nabbed one try for Muswellbrook and Alan Johnson scored one conversion. Players of the Match were Guy Shepherd (Singleton) and Bruce Raupe (Muswellbrook).
